Pensioners of Southern Alberta Held Picnic At Crows Nest Lake

Approximately 185 old-age pensioners and senior citizens from Lethbridge, Port Macleod, Taber, Funcher Creek, Bellevue, Hillcrest, Medicine Hat, Blairmore and Coleman gathered at Beautiful Crows Nest Lake on Sunday, August 14 for a rally and picnic.

The old timers enjoyed community singing, songs and tap dance numbers and numerous speeches, after which they enjoyed luncheon.

There were seven members present of 90 years of age, with Dr. A. Hamman of Taber, aged 90, being awarded the prize as the oldest member present, winning by a hair. Congratulations to Dr. Hamman. Hope to see you again next year.

A number of the Lethbridge group attending were transported to the rally in the Callow coach which was open for inspection to all. This is really a wonderful coach and certainly a boon to the crippled and infirm.

Officials of the old age pensioners expressed disappointment in the lack of interest shown by Pass residents, and hope that next year will show a decided increase in the interest of these old-time residents in outings of this sort.

Neil MacKinnon Laid To Rest Last Saturday

Mr. Neil MacKinnon of Coleman, died early Wednesday morning in the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital.

He had been ailing for quite some time.

Mr. MacKinnon was born in Hays River, Nova Scotia, on June 15, 1888. He came to Coleman 33 years ago, and at the time of his death was 67 years of age.

He started work in the mines upon his arrival and continued until gaining employment as janitor at Central school where he was employed until last year when he retired.

An active member of the Odd-fellows Lodge of Coleman, and he was also a prominent member of the St. Paul's United Church.

Mr. MacKinnon has been married 31 years, and in his many years in church services he served 25 years as Secretary-Treasurer.

He is survived not only by his wife Mary, but also three brothers and one sister. Daughter of Hays River, Alex of Arlington, Mass., Archie of Arlington, Mass., and Mamie of Hays River. His father predeceased him in 1898 and his mother in 1932.

Well known in the Pass, Mr. MacKinnon will be greatly missed by his many friends.

The services were held from St. Paul's United Church with Rev. R. A. MacAuley officiating. Burial was in the Coleman cemetery. Culham Funeral Home was in charge of the funeral.

Pallbearers at the funeral were Feruccio DeCecco, Dan McLellan, Charles MacQuarrie, S. Murdoch, Jack Jenkins and Percy Dickenson.

Card of Thanks

At this time I wish to express my sincere thanks to all those who were so kind in sending such beautiful floral tributes and to those who remembered me with lovely cards from town and elsewhere. In the death of my dearly beloved husband,

"Thank You All"

Mary MacKinnon

Card of Thanks

I wish to express my sincere thanks and appreciation to Dr. Liesemer for his kindness and thoughtfulness in caring for my husband, also to Nellie Kinnear, the nurses and staff of the hospital for being so good.

A special thanks to Rev. R. MacAuley for being so kind and attentive and close to me in my loss. To all of you "Thank You"

Mary MacKinnon

Two-day Jubilee Fete Is Planned For Blairmore Sept 7, 8

BLAIRMORE E—Business places and schools in Blairmore will be closed September 8 to mark Alberta's Golden Jubilee year. Celebrations in this Crows Nest Pass town will extend over a two-day period, Wednesday, Sept. 7, and Thursday, Sept. 8. The Blairmore Jubilee committee, made up of representatives of various organizations and the town council met Thursday night to complete plans for the two-day celebration.

The board of trade has reported that 25 business places and organizations have already indicated their intentions to place floats in the parade, which will be featured Thursday morning, and more are expected.

The parade is expected to begin at the Blairmore main school, proceed down Victoria street, cross the railroad tracks and wind up at the new arena.

Arena Opening
The committee decided Thursday that the arena will be officially opened when the parade ends there. The opening ceremony will be held out-of-doors and it is expected the local MLA William Kovach will officiate.

Following the opening the arena will be open for inspection by the public and a short band concert will be held. The band concert will be performed by the three bands entered in the parade including Crows Nest Pass Band, Coleman Pipe Band and the REEME Band.

Thursday afternoon the children of Blairmore and Frank which have also been invited to take part in the celebrations, will complete in a sports event. The sports day is being sponsored by the Blairmore Sports Association and the women's organizations. Prizes will be given to the winners of the various races and competitions and the little league ball games.

During the meeting the committee decided that a dance should be held Thursday night to wind up the activities. The Blairmore Lions Club will be asked to take charge of arrangements for the event which will be held in the Elks hall.

Honor Old Timers

Wednesday will primarily honor the senior citizens of Blairmore and Frank. Alberta Jubilee scrolls will be presented to the old timers and a banquet will be held in their honor. Individual invitations have been presented and will be sent out within a week. It will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Elks hall and will be followed by an old-time dance. The committee expects about 200 will be present at the event.

It was also decided that the children will be treated to free refreshments during the sports event. The ladies' organizations will have a refreshment booth. Mayor William Gray was chairman of the meeting and the gathering will be held Friday, Sept. 2nd.

Parents and friends may enjoy hearing a very small child make his first attempts at talking but his mispronunciation should not be laughed at nor should he be encouraged to continue "baby-talk" after he is able to speak properly.

SONGSTRESS VS. BRAVY BRAVE

DAINTY SINGING STAR of Canadian radio and television, Lorraine McAllister trounced the top-knot off burly Indian Chief Split Cloud in an unscheduled log bucking contest at a Sportmen's Show in Vancouver. Augmenting her 110 pounds of pulchritude with 20 pounds of McCulloch Chain Saw, Lorraine ripped through the test timber way ahead of her swarthy opponent who was equipped with an old-fashioned bucksaw. The Chief had a 10-second handicap, too.

Coleman Council Appoints New Fire Chief

The Coleman town council at their last meeting appointed town foreman John Kinnear as fire chief to fill the position left vacant upon the resignation of R. A. Montabetti, who has been the chief for quite some years.

Mr. Montabetti accepted the assistant fire chief's position. Other matters before the council were the setting up of a court of revision to deal with complaints arising out of tax assessments. Members on this body are Mayor F. Abousafy, J. Ramsay, J. Wavrean, A. Toppiano and G. Jenkins.

Council heard a report on the Golden Jubilee celebration plans from Chairman G. Jenkins, and agreed to assist in the cost of a banquet if held for the senior citizens.

The town is to play host to the Cranbrook JayCees as they pass through on their tour of southern Alberta towns. Cost to be shared by the Coleman Board of Trade. Council approved the purchase of hats for the volunteer firemen at a cost of $80, providing the men purchase their own jackets.

Grand Union Highway Signs Damaged By Juveniles

Chief Constable Corsan apprehended five juveniles who were reported throwing rocks at the new Grand Union Highway signs last week.

As yet no charge has been laid. The Calgary Brewing Co. went to considerable expense to make and erect these signs and only under the agreement that they would maintain these signs in top condition as instructed by the town council when they approved. Destruction of this kind by juveniles should not be let go. We suggest the old style strappings that were meted out by our courts a few years ago.

It is strange what a strapping of this kind can do to change minds bent on mischief.

Milk is such an important food that people who do not like the plain form should try to take it in soups, sauces or desserts. Some favorite flavoring and perhaps a little cooking color may help to make milk more attractive, for drinking.

In case of fire, a smoke filled room may be more safely crossed if a wet cloth is wrapped over nose and mouth, crawling on hands and knees will help to prevent the danger of being overcome by smoke.

Coleman Elks To Sponsor Carnival Sept. 9, 10

With the fall season coming up the Coleman Elks have come along with some entertainment that everyone has been waiting for—carnival time will be Friday and Saturday, September 9 and 10 in the arena.

Bigger and better prizes are being offered, according to reports — the best ever.

Then on Friday, September 23 and every second week after the famous Elks bingo will be the by-word heard in Coleman.

There is rumor that there will be a new bingo voice—John "The Voice" Holk says it's time for another to holler those magic numbers. We wonder, maybe he is getting old or just tired, but we think that he will be there.

Blairmore Forest Fire Practically Defeated

With over 100 men on the watch against flare-up of fires the battle to put out the fires on Goat Mtn. has been almost won.

The difficult terrain has made the job much tougher than was originally expected, with the thick carpet of pine and spruce needles smoldering in deep ravines power equipment could not be used. Men with water tanks strapped to their backs, and others equipped with axes, shovels, toiled up these steep ravines to put out the fire.

Fire-fighters reported that as soon as they put out one fire another would come alive. The West Canadian mine in Blairmore was idle on Monday and Tuesday so as to release men to battle the fire, with the Coleman Collieries mine of Coleman being idle on Wednesday, so their men could fight the fire. Numerous Coleman business men were pressed into service to fight fire on Wednesday and Thursday.

It has been reported that even tourists and Pass visitors were not exempted as Forestry officials were hard-pressed for men.

Miners living in the Pass and working in Michel and Fernie mines were conscripted as they returned from work on Wednesday afternoon. This will bring home to careless people who leave fires unattended and to the disregard of careful methods of extinguishing rubbish and camp fires the havoc they can cause. No one likes to fight fire, but when fires rage through our forests we all must give all we have to put them out. Especially when we live in these green hills.

In net value of production construction accounted for 14.4 per cent of Canada's industrial output in 1952, agriculture accounted for 18.0 per cent, and manufactures accounted for 54.3 per cent.

Coleman Senior Citizens to Receive Scrolls September 16th

Chairman George Jenkins of the Jubilee committee reports that tentative plans have been formed to present the Senior Citizens scrolls on September 16.

Included in the plans are the opening of the new playgrounds and the tourist shelter in the official manner, holding of a banquet for the senior citizens and a sports day in which students of the Coleman high school would take part.

Other attractions for this event are still being considered. The committee are also considering plans for the building of a wading pool in the new playgrounds to commemorate the Alberta Golden Jubilee.

Long Time Resident Passes Away

A long time resident of Coleman, Henry Neimever, 50, passed away in the C.N.P. Municipal Hospital on Saturday afternoon.

Born in Holland, deceased came to Canada and settled in Coleman in 1934. He worked in the mine for several years until 1945 when he started a business for himself in used cars, auto parts and the raising of fine dogs. He operated this until his death.

He is survived by his wife, five sons and two daughters, all of Coleman. Another daughter Mrs. L. Poriz (Dorothy) resides in Blairmore.

Funeral services were conducted from St. Paul's United Church on Tuesday afternoon at 2 p.m. The Rev. R. MacAuley was the officiating minister. Interment was made in the Union Cemetery.

Chick Roughhead To Defend Tennis Title at Coleman This Week-end

Chick Roughhead will defend his championship men's singles at the Southern Alberta Tennis meet being held in Lethbridge on August 19 and 20.

Tennis enthusiasts from Southern Alberta and British Columbia will be on hand to make this a top-notch meet.

Kimberley has signified that they will send a 12-player team, and other entries have come in from the Crows Nest Pass towns and Vulcan.

Doreen Durfee, also of Coleman, last year's women's singles champion, is also expected to be on hand to repeat her performance of last year.

First draws will take place on Saturday morning with the final games run off Sunday with all games to be played on the Lethbridge Tennis Club's four civic courts.

Doug Paris of Vulcan and Bob Leggett of Kimberley were successful in staving off a determined effort of Chick Roughhead and Jim Ewing to take the Southern Alberta Men's Doubles title in the Lethbridge tennis clubs annual tournament held last Sunday, Aug. 21.

Paris and Roughhead meet again in the Mens single's which will be played on Sun., Aug. 28th in Coleman. Roughhead will be defending his singles title.

In the mixed doubles, Ken Brown and Enid Dowdle of Lethbridge will meet Wilkinson and Semenzen of Kimberley.

In the Ladies doubles, Larky and Dowdle of Lethbridge against Semenzen and Peder-son of Kimberley.

CORRECTION NOTICE

Due to a type error in last weeks school board report, we stated the tender amount as $45,000 and it should have read $345,00.

Coleman Ravens Undefeated by Kimberley

The Coleman Ravens, playing a double header against Kimberley Sunday, August 21 chalked up a win and a tie, before a small crowd.

In the first game won by Coleman 13-6, the Kimberley squad threatened to blow the game wide open where they picked up 5 runs in the first inning. Tymchyna, on a shaky start walked two batters and a combination of two errors and two hits, one of which was an inside the park homer, allowed five runners to cross the plate. From there on Tymchyna netted down scattered 5 hits and allowed only one runner to cross the plate in the 7th inning. Coleman lost no time in getting back into the ball game, picking up two runs in the first inning, seven in the second, one in the fourth, two in the fifth and one in the sixth. The game was called after seven innings because of its slow progress.

In the second game, Coleman had built up a 9-3 lead by the seventh inning with Frerot pitching a steady game. By the 7th inning visibility began to deteriorate. The Kimberley squad insisted the game go nine full innings, and in the semi-darkness, were able to tie the game at nine all when the game was called with two out in the ninth. It became impossible to see the ball in the last two innings and to all interests and purposes, the game should have been called at the end of the seventh inning.

The Coleman club was disappointed at the poor turnout at both games and barely managed to raise the $25.00 guarantee given to Kimberley. It is truly unfortunate the only team in the pass should be so poorly supported.

The club plans to play exhibition ball in Fernie or Eureka until Labor Day week-end when it will take part in the Fernie Tournament.

Rebekah Lodge Honor Departing Member

On Thursday, August 18 officers and members of Victoria Rebekah Lodge met at the home of Mrs. E. Gushul to honor her prior to her departure for Lethbridge where her husband is employed at the Dominion Experimental farm.

Mrs. Florence Kerr, on behalf of the lodge members presented Mrs. Gushul with a gift, expressing their regret at losing such a faithful hard-working member, and hoping that she would continue her good work in her new home.

Mrs. Gushul thanked all present and expressed her sorrow at leaving but hoped to see all of them soon again.

A lovely lunch was then served by the hostesses, Mrs. L. Fisher, Mrs. B. Jones, Mrs. B. Fairville, Mrs. C. Lonsbury, Mrs. T. Holstead and Mrs. Greenhalgh.

U.K. hopes have coal-fired gas turbine locomotives soon

LONDON.—Britain hopes to have a coal-fired gas turbine locomotive on trial early next year, states a Canadian Press story.

The emphasis is on the word "hopes." The date is tentative. The three-way project, involving the ministry of fuel and power and two private firms, is one of a number of steps being taken by the nationalized British Railways to modernize its vast system.

Advance information is restricted, but it is hoped that the pilot model will be competitive in every way with present-day steam locomotives and will have the added economic advantage of fuel saving.

One view is that the new model will consume half the coal used by a steam train on the 400-mile London-to-Glasgow run. In a country whose coal industry is flagging to the extent that coal imports are necessary, the saving on the British Railway's coal consumption last year of 13,000,000 tons would be considerable. It is also anticipated that servicing costs would be lessened.

The coal-fired gas turbine itself is the product of a Newcastle firm. The company declines to give full details of operation but says that the hot exhaust gases from the turbine are recirculated to heat combustion air which the turbine takes in.

Sound barrier to heat barrier

Lord Brabazon of Tara pressed a button at Coventry on June 13, to start a new Mach Three test tunnel, and so symbolized the change of emphasis in the British aircraft industry from considerations of the sound barrier and its problems to those of the heat barrier.

Developed at a cost of £200,000, the new tunnel is capable of giving a continuous flow at three times the speed of sound. It will be used for testing rockets, advanced jet engines, guided missiles, and the coming generation of 2,000 m.p.h. aircraft.

The Mach Three was chosen as the upper limit because it represents the most pressing requirement of modern aerodynamic research. It is in the range of the heat barrier—speeds at which the heat generated by the motion through the air begins to distort aircraft structures and makes air-breathing engines unusable in any form known today.

Construction of the tunnel was a major feat of British engineering and aerodynamic design. It occupies over 30,000 square feet of floor area and scoops out the entire summer flow of the nearby river Sowe for cooling water. "swallows" 16 tons of air a minute and has a 10,000 h.p. motor that consumes the equivalent of one-tenth of Coventry's peak-load electrical supply.

But the actual working section is so small that the test models used are no more than 16 inches long. Testing time is to be allocated to the Government and industry at large.

The power will be transmitted mechanically in the locomotive being built separately.

The locomotive builder says its vehicle for the turbine is "a single unit carried on two six-wheeled bogies." The power—1,600 horsepower—at the rails—will be transmitted to four of the six axles.

British railways already have two crude oil-fired gas turbine locomotives in experimental service, and say that research is continuing. One was built in the United Kingdom, the other in Switzerland.

In addition, British Railways has launched a 15-year, £12,000,000 dieselization program, and has already placed 1955-56 orders for 170 main-line diesel locomotives.

To add pounds

Dissatisfaction with one's weight is not confined to the overweight—there are many people who would like to add a few pounds. For those in normal health, a basic balanced diet, supplemented by some of the things the heavier people are forbidden, will often help to add the desired ounces.

Following Canada's Food Rules for the essentials in the diet, will provide normal meals—extra helpings of creamy soups, high calorie milk drinks and desserts will probably add some weight. Fruits and vegetables, rich in carbohydrates are helpful as, for instance, bananas, plums, grapes, peaches and apples, and dried beans, peas, corn and potatoes, sweet and plain.

Between-meal snacks, not recommended for the overweight, may be indulged in, by the leaner types.

Traces Tartary Buckwheat weed have been found

By ALLAN RUGG
(Wilkie Area Ag. Rep.)

Tartary Buckwheat has been discovered in the Cutknife, Unity and Revard districts. So far there is no report of earlocks of wheat having gone rejected because of this weed, but this can happen. This is due to the fact that the seed cannot be cleaned out of what which renders it useless for production of flour if in too large quantities.

Now is a good time to locate those patches of Tartary. It is an annual weed, resembles slightly wild buckwheat but has a yellowish green leaf with red veins on the under side. It is also a little larger leaf and not as smooth as wild buckwheat. It is not a climbing or vine plant but grows six to 18 inches high.

To prevent its spread follow these points:

Learn to recognize the plant and seed, now only clean seed—keep away from elevator seed cleaning; prevent isolated plants from going to seed by pulling them.

Space does not permit a full discussion on control methods but all those who have the problem can get this information by writing to the Ag. Rep. office. Now is the time to locate this weed, 47 seeds per pound of wheat will lower the grade from No. 2 Northern to No. 3 Northern. Seventy seeds per pound will give a rejected grade and a rejected grade price.

Anyone wishing further information or identification should contact either the Ag. Rep. or district 30 weed supervisor, C. A. Harrigan of Unity.

Helpful Hints

When sprinkling clothes, try using a small sprinkling can. Also use bottles water, which will penetrate the clothes more quickly.

The fancy "cored" cucumber slices are easy to make. Just draw a fork lengthwise from end to end on the cucumber and then slice thin.

A coat of colorless nail polish will keep shiny buttons from getting dim when washed.

When the meat grinder requires oiling, use a drop or two of glycerine. This will prevent any disagreeable taste or smell and will act as a lubricant.

Home Workshop

Besides being a most practical piece of outdoor furniture this bench should add interest and simple charm to any yard or garden. The pattern gives cutting diagrams for three different styles that may be used for the deck. All three are made from stock sizes of inexpensive lumber. This pattern 442 will be made for $35. Available in packets of five standard size patterns at $15.00, each packet, are: Lawn and Garden Furniture, packets No. 1 and 2; Home Improvements, packets 1 and 2; Lawn and Garden Furniture, packets 1 and 2. Any of these packets may be returned for refund if any single pattern in a packet is not useful.

This jaunty little man with brightly painted "water, jacket and trousers is bursting with pride over the handsome plant stand he, wheels out to your lawn. He is so full of good humor that your neighbors will wish he had paid them a visit. Too. When there are no blooming plants for the

Canadian 'town' in military camp has Germans puzzled

ZWEIBRUECKEN, Germany. A pint-size model of Canadian democracy has residents of this West German town shaking their heads with wonder, relates a Canadian Press story.

How, they ask, does a military community come to have its own government and how does a lowly sergeant get to be mayor?

The situation exists in the block of Permanent Married Quarters built for dependents of men serving with the RCAF 1st Air Division's No. 3 Fighter Wing.

Some 400 families, comfortably settled in the modern three-story buildings, have drawn up a community constitution and elected their own civic authority of nine councillors and a mayor. First citizen of the four-month-old town is Sgt. Wilfred Heard, 35, of Calgary, now serving his first one-year term in office.

The PMQ community is set out on a triangular site, pointing at the nearby fighter station, with the home of the station commander, Group Capt. C. H. Hull of Vancouver, at the apex.

The community's new council has two functions, as set out in the constitution: To improve life in the married quarters settlement by promoting communal activities in the field of recreation and to provide a facility to identify and study community problems and make recommendations to the station authorities on how these problems may be solved. But Mayor Heard puts it more simply: "The aim of the council is the welfare of the citizens."

Progressive group

Development of this distinctly Canadian community on German soil has been rapid.

Ottawa approved the PMQ plan in January 1954, and three months later the German contractors moved on to the site. By December most of the quarters were completed and by March, 1955, the families had moved in. Elections were held immediately, with each ward of about 45 families voting in one councillor, and the first council meeting was held in the station school March 2. Each family was asked to contribute $1 and the council started off with a working fund of about $400.

Committees have since been set up to deal with problems of finance, publicity, health and welfare, and activities, town planning and safety.

Road safety is receiving paramount attention and traffic signs are being erected throughout the community. Mayor Heard has a special interest in this work. His six-year-old son Brian, was killed by a German truck some months ago. Police protection for the community is provided through an hourly two-man patrol by the station's own service police.

The council convenes once a month but almost every night Heard meets individual councillors in the bright three-bedroom unit.

Federal grants to hospitals

OTTAWA.—Two prairie hospitals in Manitoba and the other in Saskatchewan, will benefit from newly awarded federal health grants, it was announced by Hon. Paul Martin, federal health minister.

A grant of $21,820 goes to Manitoba to assist in construction of a new health centre at Glenboro in southwestern Manitoba. The new health centre, which will serve an area of 280 square miles, will provide accommodation for 11 patients and seven bassinets with provision for nurses' quarters and offices for local physicians and public health personnel.

Amounting to the $60,000 federal grant to Saskatchewan, Mr. Martin said it would help provide for a T.B. wing extension to the Saskatchewan hospital at Weyburn. The new wing, of brick and concrete construction, will have accommodation for 40 patients.

Coconut Fudge Chiffon Cake

Sift into a bowl, 1 c. plus 2 tbs. one-sifted cake flour, 1 1/2 tsp. Magic Baking Powder, 1/2 tsp. salt, 7 c. fine granulated sugar; mix in 1/2 c. desiccated coconut. Make a well in dry ingredients and add in order given (do not stir mixture), 1/4 c. corn (solid) oil, 2 unbeaten egg yolks, 1/4 c. plus 2 tbs. water, 1 tsp. vanilla, 2/3 c. unsweetened chocolate, melted and cooled. Stir liquids a bit, then stir in dry ingredients; beat until batter is smooth. Measure into a large bowl 1/2 c. egg whites (at room temperature) and sprinkle with 1/4 tsp. cream of tartar; beat until whites are very stiff—much stiffer than for meringues, etc. Add flour mixture, about a quarter at a time, and fold after each addition until batter and egg whites are well combined. Turn batter into an ungreased 8" angel cake pan; bake in rather slow oven, 325°, about 1 hour. Immediately cake comes from oven, invert pan and suspend cake until cold.

ARE OUR JUBILEE PLANS TOO MEAGRE?

It is not often of late that we have run editorials, but on certain occasions we are prompted to bring to the people of Coleman some things, that in our belief, are not receiving the attention that they should. We are not criticizing the Coleman Jubilee committee for their efforts, but we do suggest a broader plan to mark Alberta's Celebration on our 50 years as a province.

Day after day, week after week, we read in our newspapers what other centres are doing and have done. We bring a few suggestions forward that could make a gala event of this day—following are some of the things we should give some thought to, and to let you read for yourself we give this report from the Jubilee committee as reported by The Cranbrook Courier for the Cranbrook celebration:

"Street and building decorations in the city, the committee asks, should start to go up August 22. The City Council is having work commenced on flag stringing, colored lighting and the like early next week. The committee suggested that sidewalk flags be placed by all business houses having same or who can procure them. In the alternative, evergreen trees are suggested.

"There will be outdoor movies in Rotary Park for three nights, provided by Cranbrook Film Council, dates to be published later.

"Reports given by committees noted progress in all departments. The rodeo activities, square dancing events, old-timers' banquet, parade, concessions, curling bonspiel and the softball tournament, the latter having full entries with late applicants having to be refused.

"Chairman Johnson stressed that every activity possible which can be thought up for visitors' entertainment, such as street singers and musicians, stunts of various kinds, are welcome, and do not require permission to be engaged in. Mr. Johnson was emphatic that citizens, groups and organizations, as well as business enterprises, will be free to promote such activities as will liven up the city and provide extra amusement and frivolity, and he wished to make clear that individual enterprise of this nature will be welcomed."

What has happened to Coleman's Civil Defence Organization? Why has it become inactive?

Civil Defence MUST Continue

The following is an excerpt from an address given by the Hon. Paul Martin, federal minister responsible for Civil Defence, before the Federation of Canadian Advertising and Sales Clubs, at Kitchener, Ont., on June 3, 1955:

"Today, overshadowing all else has been the emergence in the last year or so of the thermonuclear weapon — the hydrogen bomb. This has had, and will continue to have, the most far-reaching effects on the civil defence and the military defence policy of Canada and of other free nations. As a result, new problems confront us — problems whose solution will require courage, imagination and sober judgment.

"Thus, the need for civil defence will continue either until we have achieved a secure and permanent peace or until our military advisors are able to guarantee that no enemy can make a successful attack on this country. Unhappily, neither is a foreseeable contingency and as long as we need a military defence we shall require civil defence preparations.

"Civil Defence must be achieved, in the main, by utilizing the normal services and facilities of governments at all levels, assisted by volunteers and non-governmental organizations like advertising and sales clubs. The federal government has undertaken to co-ordinate the program, to furnish information, guidance and leadership and to provide substantial financial assistance to provincial and local organizations. But, in the last analysis, the operational responsibility must rest with the individual community. We can convince—we cannot direct.

"There are two major problems for civil defence:

- (a) The survival of the population in large cities; and
- (b) The survival of the rest of the population.

"Preparation for civil defence is an immense task that can only succeed with widespread public interest and support. In these days of world tension, our first and foremost aim is to do everything within our power to clear away the obstacles that stand in the way of understanding between men and nations. It may well be that the hydrogen bomb will prove to be our best insurance against the possibility of another war. But if this should not be, if our efforts to keep the world at peace should fail, then we must be ready to meet the full weight of enemy attack. This can only be done if Canadians are prepared to face up maturely to their obligations of citizenship and plan for the uncertain future realistically, intelligently and with a pure sense of purpose."

Mary Kubik is Bride-Elect of Sept. 3

Honoring Miss Mary Kubik, whose marriage to Bruno Dudys, will take place on September 3, about 200 friends and relatives gathered at the Elks hall, Blairmore, on Wednesday evening, August 10 at a miscellaneous shower.

The bride-to-be entered the hall, decorated for the occasion with balloons filled with confetti, with her mother, Mrs. Tom Kubik of Blairmore, and her sister-in-law-to-be, Mrs. A. Sobieraj of Creston. Mary was then presented with a beautiful corsage a gift of Mrs. J. Buckna. Her mother also received a corsage.

Entertainment for the evening was whist and bingo.

After a delicious lunch, Miss Kubik preceded to the gift table which was beautifully decorated with streamers in pink and blue, a doll bride and summer flowers by four-year-old twin sisters Connie and Carol Lant of Coleman, dressed as nurses, who presented her with the many beautiful and useful gifts.

The hostesses for the evening were Miss E. Bosetti, Miss Joan Psikla, Mrs. J. Lant, Mrs. A. Psikla, Mrs. A. Lean, Miss I. Gibos, Mrs. M. Kanik, Mrs. A. Lant, Mrs. R. Lant, Mrs. T. Pomahoc, Miss M. Kanik, Mrs. A. Spatuk, Miss H. Gibos, Mrs. R. Amatto, Mrs. A. Hurlak, Mrs. M. Otteson, Mrs. L. Krawzy, Mrs. V. Margatak, Mrs. A. Bosetti, Mrs. M. Margatak, Miss H. Clemis, Mrs. V. Proc, Mrs. A. Balog, Mrs. P. Galvin, Miss M. Bobosky and Mrs. H. Hruby, sr.

Mary, who took her training as a nurse in the Holy Cross Hospital, Calgary, graduated in 1952, and has been on the staff at the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital since that time.

Tips To Mothers On Child Feeding

"The child itself is the final proof of the success or failure of any given diet," says Dr. R. H. Johnson, in an article appearing in the current issue of HEALTH magazine, official publication of the Health League of Canada.

Each child comes into the world with a natural inborn instinct to do without food for a period during which he becomes hungry, and an inborn instinct to obtain it. Each receives a sense of satisfaction after eating suitable food, and is content for another period of time after which hunger asserts itself again.

As the child grows older, he learns to take solid food by chewing and swallowing as opposed to sucking, and he develops another attribute — appetite — which is an anticipation of satisfaction of hunger through a specific food which he has previously found pleasant.

"The first reaction of the infant to food of a different texture and not previously experienced is complete and utter rejection. The first spoonful of cereal and later each new food is promptly spat out. This is not the fault of the mother, but an instinctive act of the baby. To overcome it, the mother should insist that the infant take a small portion of the cereal, say a demi-tasse spoonful, at each feeding, persistently re-feeding it until this is accomplished. Only after one or two weeks of accepting this amount will the infant begin to take larger amounts and learn to like the food," states Dr. Johnson.

Unfortunately he says, strong dislikes in the infant are learned through unhappy experiences in forced feeding and in older children from bad example by the family. Only rarely is disease or allergy responsible and these instances should be discussed with your doctor.

Honest Driver Makes Good

Any motorist who has suffered damage to his parked car while absent, and has found that the driver inflicting the damage has silently stolen away leaving no trace, will enjoy this refreshing story of one who was completely honest about his accident, and did his best to make good.

A local car owner had his vehicle parked at the Radium Hot Springs resort. Apparently the other driver, a Kimberley man, in backing out, slightly scraped the parked car door.

After endeavoring to locate the owner of the damaged car, he left a note where it could be seen, saying: "Would you please phone me at (address). It's about your door. I tried to find the owner, but couldn't. My car licence is (number) and my insurance with (company) number is (number). My name is (name)."

Since the occurrence, we understand that the two parties have contacted, and the matter is satisfactorily cleared up.

R.C.E.M.E. Cowboy And Cowgirl Dolls Won by Visitors

Two Lethbridge residents were the lucky winners of the two dolls dressed as westerners sponsored by the RCEME Band, which have been on display here in Coleman for quite some time.

On the first draw, with ticket No. 4248, R. C. Jones of 1316, 13th ave. S. and on the second draw with ticket No. 4343, R. Thompson of 619, 10th st. S. to give these people these beautiful dolls.

The draw was held in the Canadian Legion club rooms under the direction of Bandmaster P. Beedington, and the draw was made by Mrs. Hilda Dobson of Wildhorse port of entry from the United States.

Announce Queen Candidates For Fernie Labor Day Gala

Local organizations and individuals to look after various phases of the annual three-day Labor Day Celebration were named by Frank Butala, president of the Labor Day Sports Association at its regular meeting Monday.

These were: Soap box derby, Kinsmen Club; Gate, IOOF and Kinsmen Club; Carnival, Elks and Rotary Club; Concessions, Legion Ladies' Auxiliary and Legion; accommodation George Turner; fall fair, Ald. Jack Sweeney; parade, Chamber of Commerce; dances Jack Sweeney and Bert Perpont; variety show, Mrs. D. Morgan; queen contest, Owen Corrigan.

A short concerted drive will be held for the queen contest. Candidates are Geraldine Dawson, sponsored by the Elks; Rose Pascuzzi, the baseball and football clubs' nominee, and Evelyn Lewis, named by the Chamber of Commerce.

Classes for the fall fair are being drawn up and will include exhibits in sewing, school work, garden produce and flowers.

Fishing Contest

A novel fishing contest is under consideration with arrangements being left in the hands of Harry Hark, representing the Rod and Gun Club, and William Kennedy. The contest, if arrangements to obtain the fish can be made, will be held in the swimming pool.

Official permission is being sought from the City (1) to hold the annual parade, to close off certain streets and to ban parking along the parade route; (2) to close off Wood street for the Soap Box Derby; (3) to provide electrical hook-up where necessary; (4) to obtain the arena for the fall fair and carnival; (5) to connect the colored street lighting over the holiday week-end; (6) to grant permission for a fireworks display near the arena, the display to be in charge of the Fernie fire department.

AERIAL HAZARD — The hazard on the fourth hole at a recently completed municipal golf course near Cincinnati, Ohio, is not to the game but to aerial navigation. Mrs. C. M. Erickson scans the sky over a Lunken airport runway in compliance with sign at the tee, to be sure she doesn't sink a high one in some pilot's windshield as he's coming in for a landing.

THIS LITTLE FIVE-YEAR-OLD stands fascinated before the kind of castle she has seen only in books and cartoon movies. Complete with moat and draw-gate, it is the entrance to Fantasyland, one of the four miniature towns in Walt Disney's $17,000,000 amusement park for children at Anaheim, California, which recently opened to the public.

"HOT" LAUNDRY—Hottest laundry operation in the United States, perhaps, is at the Atomic Energy Commission's Hanford, Wash., plant. Water absorbs dangerous atomic radiation coming from handling equipment which is being repaired. Hooded and masked "laundresses" are actually male technicians and scientists employed by General Electric, which runs the plant for the AEC.

SMILING SEND-OFF FOR YUGOSLAV SHIP—Mrs. Jovanka Broz, wife of Yugoslavia's President Tito, waves after pressing the button that launched the new passenger liner Yugoslavina. The liner, largest ever built in the country, has a speed of 18.5 knots.

OLD SWEETHEARTS REUNITED—Anton Schussler is greeted by his "sponsor" and sweetheart of 34 years ago, Mrs. Tillie Bruder, on his arrival in St. Louis with 64 other European refugees. He and Mrs. Bruder plan to be married.

Six-pound hailstone?

BRAMPTON—A six-pound chunk of ice clattered down on the roof of Reginald Bonnell's house recently during a rainstorm, reports the Canadian Press.

He said it probably would have killed anyone it hit. Meteorologists say it might be the largest hailstone on record. Rectangular in shape, it measured six inches along each side, and was four inches thick.

Record holder now is a 4½ pound hailstone which fell 100 years ago in Spain.

Skeptical Toronto weather experts said the ice might have fallen from the wing of a high-flying plane. But Malton airport said no icing condition existed at any normal flying height at the time.

HE'S A NEW-AND-SEW—Ticketed motorists who mutter "so-and-so" as Tennessee Trooper Marvin D. Walker walks away from their cars have the right phrase in mind, but the wrong spelling and meaning. The 215-pound six-footer fills the ticket as a top-notch dressmaker in his Memphis, Tenn., home, where he has made more than 40 frocks for daughter Barbara Jo, 6, at right. He also mends uniforms for fellow troopers.

SUGAR COATING—Optimistic park officials at Grand Rapids, Mich., hope that the smaller members of the small-fry set will pick up a little learning while at play on this nursery block obstacle course in one of the parks. Fashioned of concrete, the huge playthings attract blue youngsters who have tired of the usual slides, exercise bars and swings.

EASTERN MISS GOES WESTERN—Keiko Takahashi, who will represent Japan in the Miss Universe contest in Los Angeles, Calif., tries on a cowboy hat for size. Beauty queens from all over the world are entered in the contest.

QUIZ CONTESTANT ACCEPTS PRIZE—While her husband James holds a large Bible, Mrs. Catherine Kreitzer, 54-year-old Camp Hill, Pa., grandmother, kisses him on the cheek after deciding to take the $32,000 instead of trying for $50,000 on a television quiz show in New York.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

CHURCH ON SUNDAY

—By VEGA BROWN

"BOSS," bubbled Ruth happily, leaning over the grill counter. "I've got a job for Jerry— a nice job. Mr. Clark is taking him on as a branch bookkeeper."

I hated to drive the light out of her eyes, but someone had to put her wise. "One of Manloff's gang take a job," I growled. "That I have yet to see."

"Jerry's not one of the gang!" Her face flushed.

"Get wise, Ruthie," I said. "Has this Jerry Bronson character ever asked you to marry him?"

"No-o-o," she said, then brightened. "He wouldn't ask a girl until he had a steady job."

"I warn you—that guy won't take any job with you attached."

"You're unfair! Because he's different you say he's no good. He's real refined when he talks to you," she added dreamily.

"Refined?" she says. When I see that waterfront loafer talking out the side of his mouth to Manloff, he's just another—"I broke off short. "Talk of the devil!"

Ruth ran to meet him, her voice raised excitedly, telling about the job. But he wasn't interested, wasn't even listening. "Has Manloff been in yet?" he asked.

"No-o-o," I said. "An' never is soon enough. But Clark's a swell guy to work for."

"I know," said Jerry. "But I'm expecting to close a big deal tonight."

Ruth started off bravely on a new track. "It's such a pretty little town," she said persuasively. "Maybe you'd find a nice girl and get married— have a house and garden. There'd be nice friends, and on Sundays you'd go to church, and later on there might be kiddies."

The poor little dove! I thought. "Hey, you're going too fast," he cut in. "Do you—" He stopped, his eyes hardened and the smile ebbed from his face.

Ruth clung to his arm as Manloff shouldered his way into a booth followed by Max and Tony. "Hi, baby!" he shouted. "Mine's corned beef—an' shake those pretty gams."

"I'll take their order, Ruth," I said.

"They don't bother me," she snapped. I knew what was eating her—she was hurt that Jerry would stand for him talking to her like that.

When Ruth returned with the orders, Jerry had joined them, and the four heads were close together. I knew that they were up to no good. Both Manloff and Tony had done time for smuggling. I heard Manloff say, "Okay, bug big made a pass at Ruth, but she was too quick for him. She went back to the kitchen, but a minute later out poked her head. 'Mr. Bronson—wanted on the phone.'"

"I'll take their order, Ruth," I said.

"They don't bother me," she snapped. I knew what was eating her—she was hurt that Jerry would stand for him talking to her like that.

When Ruth returned with the orders, Jerry had joined them, and the four heads were close together. I knew that they were up to no good. Both Manloff and Tony had done time for smuggling. I heard Manloff say, "Okay, bug big made a pass at Ruth, but she was too quick for him. She went back to the kitchen, but a minute later out poked her head. 'Mr. Bronson—wanted on the phone.'"

Jerry rose and followed her. Presently Ruth returned alone, and I guessed when she took the vacant seat next to Manloff. His arm went round her, and I moved quickly, but she shook her head. I shrugged my shoulders; something was cooking that I couldn't figure. Suddenly Manloff jumped to his feet and grabbed his hat. The others followed; they looked badly worried guys to me.

Ruth watched them go with a contented smile.

A noise of muffled shouting and heavy blows filtered into the room.

"What the—?" I said starting off towards the noise.

Ruth checked me. "It's only Ruth," she said. "He's locked in the storeroom. I told him the phone was there."

"Let him out pronto," I snapped. "An' no more monkey business on your part."

A moment later Jerry burst in. "Where are they?" he yelled.

"I wouldn't know," I said. "Better ask Ruth."

He turned on her. "Well?"

"Where you won't find them!" she said defiantly.

He started for the door, but Ruth grabbed him. "Please, Jerry," she begged. "They'll kill you!"

He seized her by the shoulders, his eyes probing hers. "Now why would they want to kill me?"

"Oh, Jerry," she faltered. "I couldn't bear your being mixed up with that mob—I told them you were a stooge working for the Customs."

He threw up his hands. "That's a woman for you!" he said.

"There's that nice job with Mr. Clark," said Ruth, her eyes appealing. She looked so tragic that I butted in. "Can't you take a joke, Bronson?" I said. "Little Ruthie scaring off those toughs—what a laugh!"

"Want funny?" he said sourly. "I am a Customs agent. I'd have nabbed that gang tonight re-handled if she hadn't ruined everything."

Ruth burst into tears.

"She did it for your sake, Bronson," I said. "How was the kid to know?"

His mouth relaxed, his arm went round her shoulders. "Come, come, honey," he said. "There's nothing to cry about. I'm quitting the Customs anyway, and I'll see Clark in the morning."

Then as she looked up starry-eyed, he added huskily, "I can't promise the house and garden right away, but I'll sure take you to church on Sunday."

Be altar shy live to 105 says oldster

PORT ARTHUR, Ont. — Gus ROTH passes on advice to the young 'uns, a Canadian Press story relates.

Be altar shy and live to 105.

Gus believes he's that age although the specific day of the year he was born is a mystery.

He regards his escape from matrimony as a major achievement and prime factor in reaching ripe old age.

"I did know a girl once I sort of had my eye on, but the other eye wandered at the right moment and I got out of that fix," he said.

Gus attributes the fact he still has his own teeth and a full shock of white hair to his freedom from women.

"Why you know what a young bride's cooking can do to a good set of teeth," he said, "and all those years of worrying wouldn't have done my hair any good either."

Getting along

In spite of his advanced years, Gus seems to get along pretty well.

"My eyes are not quite what they used to be though," Gus admits, "but otherwise I get along just fine."

Gus is a little lazy about his earlier years. He remembers landing here when he was about 12, when there was just one store and a lot of Indians.

He recalls that about the time of the Riel Rebellion his father had a restaurant here.

"There wasn't much call for that sort of thing," he says, "and my father went broke."

NEW SCOOTER

Although it has only recently begun rolling off the assembly lines, the Albator, Britain's first mass-produced modern-style motor scooter, has already been ordered in substantial numbers by dealers in the Commonwealth, the U.S.A., and Scandinavia. Streamlining and a 225 cc. engine give the new scooter a speed of 70 m.p.h.

Cool, juicy, flavorful berries perfect for hot weather dessert

Berry season is here again and what could be more perfect for a hot weather dessert than a bowl of cool flavorful juicy berries. Whether served plain or dressed up they make a colorful appetizing dish to tempt lagging summer appetites.

The home economists of the consumer section, Canada department of Agriculture, after picking berries, put them in a large bowl of cold water—with strawberries wash before hulling. Let any sand or soil settle to the bottom, then lift the berries gently from the water with your fingers letting them act as a strainer. Do not let berries stand long in the water because they are apt to lose their good color and flavor.

This year why not make the most of the berries by serving them in a variety of different ways. One of the most popular ways is a simple dessert of berries and cream with perhaps a little sugar. Pies and tarts are national favorites and a fruit chafon pie or a crisp angel pie with a fruit filling can give an otherwise simple meal a party air.

No one would be satisfied to let the fruit season pass by without having several shortcakes made with either light golden brown biscuits or tender cake layers and topped with swirls of whipped cream.

Snowy white meringue baskets are always tempting served heaped full of ice cream and sweetened berries. Popular also are ice cream sundines with fresh berries and so are the host of frozen and ice box fruit desserts.

Berries are one of the most perishable fruits and for this reason they are packed and then transported quickly. The best flavor is found in berries that are plump, firm and uniformly ripened.

To store berries they should be kept cool and dry in a place where there is good air circulation. The home economists say never to pack berries into jars. They suggest storing them in trays or shallow pans as this will avoid bruising or crushing the berries.

For safety's sake, all fruit should be washed before serving.

Northern pike will spawn in strange waters

PRINCE ALBERT.—A recent occurrence at the provincial fisheries branch's Port Qu'Appelle hatchery has provided personnel with valuable information concerning the spawning habits of great northern pike.

It has always been a generally accepted fact that pike (commonly known as "jacks"), would not spawn each spring without habitually migrating upstream to special spawning grounds. However, it has now been found that these fighting game fish will often spawn in supposedly unsuitable areas.

Adult pike placed in the Port Qu'Appelle hatchery last spring actually spawned and raised approximately 1,200 young in the fingerling stage, in the hatchery's rock-bottomed rearing ponds. Generally, these fish seek weed beds in which to spawn.

G. E. Coudwell, Saskatchewan's fisheries director, said this hatchery pond spawning of pike should give the minds of sportsmen who feared building of dams and screens on provincial waterways would deter proper reproduction.

The dams and screens are being made necessary by the branch's carp control program.

Portholes in ships are made round instead of square because a round opening is easier to make watertight and is also more resistant to the pounding of waves.

18.5 Million fry, fingerlings planted in provincial waters

PRINCE ALBERT.—Saskatchewan's fisheries branch planted some 18,500,000 fish fry and fingerlings in provincial waters during the past month. G. E. Coudwell, fisheries director, announced.

Species planted included whitefish, pickerel, Arctic grayling, trout and northern pike. Distribution was as follows:

Whitefish—11,100,000 fry in Basin, Fir, Jackfish, Lenore, Pratt, Rodberry and Sandy Lakes.

Pickel—6,000,000 fry in 19 lakes situated throughout the settled portion of the province.

Arctic Grayling—1,400,000 fingerlings in Beaver (Amisk) Lake, Lac la Ronge and the Churchill River System.

Rainbow Trout—a total of 13,700 fingerlings were planted, with 5,000 going into the new Moosemin Dam, in southeastern Saskatchewan; 5,000 into Swift Current's Gouverneur Dam; 2,200 into Cypress Hills water areas; 1,000 into Humboldt's Burton Lake; and 500 into an Estevan water area.

Loch leven trout—90,000 fingerlings into lakes, streams and reservoirs throughout the province.

Eastern brook trout—10,000 fingerlings into the Pasqua and Otsego Rivers, in the Hudson Bay area. (The fisheries branch has an additional 5,000 brown and 4,000 eastern brook trout fingerlings rearing in the Fort Qu'Appelle hatchery for distribution this fall.)

Northern pike—1,075 fingerlings in Crystal, Humboldt and Lucien Lakes. In addition, 65 adult pike were released into Fire Lake.

The fisheries branch gets its planting stock from spawn camps set up annually in spring and fall. Eggs collected at these camps are hatched in the branch's La Ronge and Qu'Appelle hatcheries.

Mr. Coudwell said his branch was carrying out planting operations annually to improve and diversify sport fishing in Saskatchewan. He added that the planting of whitefish gave an assist to the province's commercial and domestic fisheries.

Lethbridge Car-code Cancelled; No Support

(Courtesy Cranbrook Courier)
"We've done just about all that is possible but canvass the entire city, to talk people into having a good time on a very little bit of money," voiced committee chairman for the Jaycee Jubilee Carcades, in referring to the planned trip to Lethbridge this week-end.

At the same time, they announced that the planned trip would be called off for lack of citizen support. At press time there were no cars registered for the Lethbridge tour which was to publicize Cranbrook's Golden Jubilee in southern Alberta and in Montana points. Additions to the opportunity of the Junior Chamber of Commerce members in charge of the carcade, were reports from newspapers along the route promising publicity, which they had given assuring their full co-operation. Further the Chamber of Commerce in Blairmore had planned a luncheon in honor of the people who would have made up the carcade. An old 1903 automobile had been lined up for the main attraction of the tour.

In view of the fact that the carcade to Spokane last week-end was such a success it was hoped that people who missed that trip would have been able to make the Lethbridge carcade. However, no one has yet indicated their desire to go at this date and it seems unlikely that a complement of cars would be signed.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce have completed their promotional work for the Golden Jubilee with a 10-point advertising program. This includes: truck banners, bill board posters, window posters, variety show posters, hot bands, buttons, match folders, bumper stickers, street banner and arch signs, distribution of gold seals with Jubilee emblem for out-of-town mail, distribution of Jubilee pictures to all major papers in the Northwest (Canada and U. S.), arrangement of television radio newspaper feature publicity and carcades. In addition a film was made up and is showing all through the month of August at the Rex Drive-In Theatre.

Rambling Notes From The Fire-fighters

Who phoned in the false report to Coleman that the fire-fighters on Thursday were not needed, causing considerable confusion among the men and the Forestry Department.

False alarms of this kind are no joke, and the guilty party, if apprehended, will find it much tougher going than if they had gone out and fought fire.

According to reports received from the fire-fighters the lunkers on certain days was nothing to write home about. It must be presumed that the difficulty in getting these refreshments to the men could have been the reason that they were not up to scratch.

There seems to have been considerable confusion between some fire parties and the rangers that were in charge. This led to some very hard feelings,—let's hope this does not continue.

Everything was not as tough as it sounded. We heard of some very amusing things that happened. This one really tickled us. What prominent taxi driver of Coleman thought he had found a baby bear with the fur burned off its posterior, and had all of the men along with the ranger, come and inspect it, only to find out that it was a baby porcupine. You are going to have a hard time to live that down B.....

Oh, yes, as a final warning—Don't laugh at the other fellow who got nabbed to fight fire. It seems as if those rangers have radar hearing and those laughs sounded so good that he wanted you right with him so he could hear them, too. It was reported that those laughs were not so loud after. Terrible, is it not.
